

How to be a Fashionista with Limited Edition Accessories

Keywords: Best Women Leather Handbag in India

Who doesn't want to look pretty and trendy? Of course, everyone wants to look good. You see confidence is not just about how you feel from within, your outer appearance is also responsible for it. A few may think that it is wrong to judge a person through their looks. The first impression is the last impression. The first thing that a person will notice about you is the way you have dressed and how you carry yourself.

To look good you need to be fashionable. Fashion trends keep changing every now and then. But, there is no need for you to constantly keep up with the newest designs while choosing the clothes & accessories. It is better to have your own style that you feel is comfortable yet trendy. There's no doubt that all of us like to flaunt designer clothing and accessories, but you should also realize that becoming trendy can be done in a not so expensive manner as well. Do you have a simple outfit that has got you worried if it will look elegant? Don't worry! Just pair it with good accessories to ramp up your glam quotient instantly. If you like unique things, you can opt for limited edition accessories as those are made in certain numbers only. Also, usually, a brand does not repeat the same collection after it sells all the stock.

We present to you the 5 accessories that you should have in your closet.

1. Elegant pair of earrings that stand out.

If your favourite brand is offering a limited-edition collection of earrings, then you can go for that too. After all, it's limited and you won't be able to buy that if the stocks get over.

A pair of casual chic earrings will go well with your jeans and top. If you have to attend a special function, then you have to choose the appropriate type of earrings that will go well with your outfit. For instance, you can don a pair of elegant drooping earrings with glitter or stones to make your overall look appear more elegant and sophisticated. If you are someone who prefers minimalistic design earrings? Then you should go for a simple design with basic natural stones or crystals.

2. Sunglasses.

Planning to go on a beach vacation with your family and friends? Choose the right swimwear to have fun at the beach. But don't forget to carry your cool sunglasses. You surely don't want to be squinting for the entire time that you are on the beach. Plus, a cool pair of sunglasses will add the perfect amount of elegance to your entire beach look and also protect your eyes from harmful sun rays. Make sure to purchase the sunglasses that will suit your face and make you look glamorous.

3. Fancy wristwatch.

We know everyone owns a smartphone these days that gives the time. Well, these days you don't get the typical kinds of watches. Yeah, they are still available, but you can also get watches with a beautiful dial and fancy strap. Not will it just give the time, but also add glamour to your overall look.

4. Finger rings.

If you like drama, you can choose multiple differently sized rings for your fingers. Also, you can opt for a limited-edition collection if that goes well with your personality.

5. Leather handbag.

As women, we rarely go out without carrying a handbag. No other material bag can beat the look & durability of a leather bag. We at Coal Fashion design the Best Women Leather Handbag in India and have customers in Dubai, Canada and the USA as well. All our limited edition collections take inspiration from nature. Ours is a luxury brand and we assure you that we never compromise on the uniqueness and the quality of our handbags. We never repeat our collections. Our handbags are made using 2 colours and that's the reason we use four times more leather as compared to a leather bag made using a single colour. We take quality very seriously and even a minor defect in the bag leads to its rejection by our quality control team. We are proud to say that till now we have not received a single complaint regarding the bag quality.

Our designers and workers undergo a rigorous training before they are asked to make a handbag for Coal Fashions. Each handbag is carefully made and perfected. Most of the brands ignore the aspects of constructions but since Coal Fashions is a luxury brand, we avoid using joints in both the front & back panel of our leather handbags that requires extra leather unnecessarily. Since we procure the leather from the most reputed tannery in Italy, we assure you that all our handbags are designed using original leather. Big international brands like Prada also source leather from here. Other materials that are needed for making the handbag are sourced mostly from Hong Kong which is one of the best markets in the world. If you want to purchase a real leather handbag that is handcrafted by trained designers then choose Coal Fashions to Best Women Leather Handbag in India. Keeping each collection unique and ensuring high quality gives our brand a cutting edge. We have big ideas and we aspire to amaze the world with our luxury handbags and aim to be a game-changer in this segment. Our goal is to compete with big brands all around the globe and for that, we have stringent quality and design practices in place. We assure you that when you buy a handbag from Coal Fashions, you are buying a bag that meets all the international quality standards.

We hope that you liked these tips on pairing accessories with your outfit to stand out amongst others. Styling with limited edition Accessories is easy and fun. Any woman can be a fashionista by using these tips.
